NOTED RACING DRIVER
SUCCUMBS TO BURNS

Harry F. Grant Dies From Injuries
Suffered When Auto
Caught Fire.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Harry F. Grant, world-famous automobile driver, died early this morning in the Coney Island Hospital from burns suffered a week ago at the Sheepshead Bay speedway. He was to have participated in the big race tomorrow.

While racing in the elimination trials last week at a speed of ninety-five miles an hour, Grant's car caught fire. Before he could stop the machine he was badly burned, and had inhaled some of the fumes.

The final trials for Saturday's race were to be held today, weather permitting. Slippery track prevented the trials yesterday.
